

Semcon and Ericsson Increase Co-operation in Denmark

Semcon Denmark A/S and L.M. Ericsson A/S have agreed on entering a business partnership on consulting services.

As part of the reinforced cooperation between the two companies, 34 Ericsson employees have been employed by Semcon and will bring services and solutions to Ericsson and Ericsson customers. On top of that, Semcon will provide technical project and process consulting to Ericsson sites around the world.

“It is a great pleasure to see that highly skilled Ericsson employees in København and Aalborg have found new challenges with an ambitious partner”, states Ib Byder, CEO Ericsson Denmark.

Semcon Denmark A/S regards this a major business opportunity and as contributing to establishing Semcon's strategic position in the Danish market for solutions within the Telecom area and Industrial Engineering.

"We are excited and proud that Ericsson Denmark has chosen Semcon as a partner" says Lennard Lat, CEO, Semcon Denmark A/S. The agreement will position Semcon Denmark as a strong player in the Danish market and will contribute to getting us closer to our goal, which is becoming one of the leading engineering companies in Denmark" finishes Lennard Lat.

“The new business cooperation fits perfectly into Semcon's strategic decision on strengthening Semcon's position in telecom and internationally”, says Hans Johansson, CEO of Semcon.
